Explore how enterprise leaders are turning the promise of Agentic AI into measurable business outcomes. This private dinner brings together forward-thinking CXOs, AI strategists, and innovation leaders to discuss the real-world impact of autonomous AI agents and how to operationalize them within complex enterprise environments.

As AI rapidly reshapes competitive dynamics, companies must go beyond experimentation and start building strategic, scalable implementations. In this intimate setting, we'll share practical frameworks and real customer stories around:

Defining an actionable Agentic AI strategy aligned to enterprise goals
Identifying the highest-value use cases to drive near-term ROI
Leveraging AWS's latest GenAI services and Caylent's expertise to accelerate deployment
Navigating data readiness, organizational change, and risk
Building the foundation for continuous learning and iterative AI adoption
